Dear Mrs Kotecha

Aberdeen House Care Limited - ("the Company")
(In Creditors' Voluntary Liquidation)

As you are aware Gareth David Wilcox of Opus Restructuring LLP, and I were appointed as Joint Liquidators of the Company on Wednesday 17 January 2024. As Joint Liquidators of the Company we act both jointly and severally.

The effect of my appointment as Joint Liquidator is that your powers as a Director cease. This means that you have no authority to deal with the Company's affairs or assets, with the exception of such authority as I may from time to time delegate to you.

I would remind you that the Directors of the Company are required by the insolvency legislation to co-operate fully with the Liquidators, to provide such information concerning the Company and its formation, business dealings, affairs or property as we may at any time reasonably require. We may also require you to attend to meetings with us at such times as we may reasonably require.

I enclose a list of the Company's accounting records that you have already delivered to us and would ask you to sign and return that list to me to either confirm that that you have delivered up all of the Company's accounting records for the last 6 years, or to provide me with information about what other accounting records were maintained, and their current whereabouts.

I also enclose a Director's questionnaire in connection with the Liquidators statutory duties under the Company Directors Disqualification Act to report on the conduct of all those who have been Directors, or have otherwise been involved in the management of the Company, in the last 3 years. You should complete this to the best of your ability, returning it to me within the next twenty-one days.

Finally, I would also like to take this opportunity to draw your attention to the provisions of section 216 and 217 of the Insolvency Act 1986 which are briefly explained below.

As you are a Director of the Company, once the Company is placed into liquidation you will be prohibited from using any name by which the Company was known, including any trading names, or a name which is so similar as to suggest an association with that Company.

The restriction from using a prohibited name applies for the period of 5 years beginning with the day on which the Company is placed into liquidation and except with the permission of the court you cannot:

- a) be a Director of any other Company that is known by a prohibited name, or,
- b) in any way, whether directly or indirectly, be concerned or take part in the promotion, formation or management of any such Company, or,
- c) in any way, whether directly or indirectly, be concerned or take part in the carrying on of an unincorporated business under a prohibited name.

Your attention is also drawn to rules 22.1 to 22.7 of The Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2016 which provide three exceptions to the restriction imposed by section 216 of the Insolvency Act 1986. You should note that the interpretation of these rules has been subject to case law and you should seek independent legal advice to ensure that you do not contravene section 216.

You should note that it is a criminal offence to contravene section 216 of the Insolvency Act 1986 and if you act in contravention of this section you are liable on conviction to imprisonment and/or a fine.

Your attention is also drawn to section 217 of the Insolvency Act 1986, which provides, amongst other things, that a person who is involved in the management of a Company in contravention of section 216 of the Insolvency Act 1986 is personally liable for any debts of the Company incurred during the period of that involvement.

Copies of sections 216 and 217 of the Insolvency Act 1986 are attached, together with a copy of rules 22.1 to 22.7 of The Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2016.

Section 217 Personal liability for debts, following contravention of s 216

- (5) Notice may not be given under this rule by a person who has already acted in breach of section 216.

22.5 Statement as to the effect of the notice under rule 22.4(2)

The statement as to the effect of the notice under rule 22.4(2) must be as set out below—

“Section 216(3) of the Insolvency Act 1986 lists the activities that a director of a company that has gone into insolvent liquidation may not undertake unless the court gives permission or there is an exception in the Insolvency Rules made under the Insolvency Act 1986. (This includes the exceptions in Part 22 of the Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2016.) These activities are—

- (a) acting as a director of another company that is known by a name which is either the same as a name used by the company in insolvent liquidation in the

- 12 months before it entered liquidation or is so similar as to suggest an association with that company;
- (b) directly or indirectly being concerned or taking part in the promotion, formation or management of any such company; or
- (c) directly or indirectly being concerned in the carrying on of a business otherwise than through a company under a name of the kind mentioned in (a) above.

This notice is given under rule 22.4 of the Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2016 where the business of a company which is in, or may go into, insolvent liquidation is, or is to be, carried on otherwise than by the company in liquidation with the involvement of a director of that company and under the same or a similar name to that of that company.

The purpose of giving this notice is to permit the director to act in these circumstances where the company enters (or has entered) insolvent liquidation without the director committing a criminal offence and in the case of the carrying on of the business through another company, being personally liable for that company's debts.

Notice may be given where the person giving the notice is already the director of a company which proposes to adopt a prohibited name."

22.6 Second excepted case

- (1) Where a person to whom section 216 applies as having been a Director or shadow Director of the liquidating Company applies for permission of the Court under that section not later than 7 business days from the date on which the Company went into liquidation, he may, during the period specified in paragraph (2) below, act in any of the ways mentioned in section 216(3), notwithstanding that he has not the permission of the Court under that section.
- (2) The period referred to in paragraph (1) begins with the day on which the Company goes into liquidation and ends either on the day falling six weeks after that date or on the day on which the Court disposes of the application for permission under section 216, whichever of those days occurs first.

22.7 Third excepted case

The Court's permission under section 216(3) is not required where the Company there referred to though known by a prohibited name within the meaning of the section-

- (a) has been known by that name for the whole of the period of 12 months ending with the day before the liquidating Company went into liquidation, and
- (b) has not at any time in those 12 months been dormant within the meaning of section 1169(1), (2) and (3)(a) of the Companies Act.
